George, the communists are trying to steal the election- it's obvious. We go to bed and Trump is winning, then wake up to magically find hundreds of thousands of "only Biden" votes. Normally a candidate who is honest wants transparency. We are on the verge of civil war and the battleground will be ATL. We're going to go door to door and execute the fucking communists. I want to make that clear.

In the 1800 election, the GA certification for its 4 electors was defective and in dispute because it wasn't properly certified. The votes were for Jefferson and Burr - with those votes Jefferson would win the electoral college, without them he would lose. As the VP and President of the Senate, Jefferson counted the votes for himself. So this is a precedent for Pence being authorized to count disputed votes in his own election. In today's GA presidential election, Trump is behind 12,000 votes. Giuliani has the "receipts" proving 100,000 illegal GA votes, including for example, 800 dead people and 65,000 underage voters - these are the undisputed facts. The VP isn't just performing a clerical function, judgment and discretion has to be exercised where the votes are contested. That's under the 12th Amendment. You're about to hear the case and the evidence for the first time since the story has been suppressed by the MSM. The evidence of a stolen election is overwhelming- there is more than enough evidence. The most likely outcome will probably be that the emergency audit proposed by Cruz will happen. I think that means Trump wins, but we'll see. <https://youtu.be/54lldcl7VOM> With From the wiki: "When the electoral ballots were opened and counted on February 11, 1801, it turned out that the certificate of election from Georgia was defective: while it was clear that the electors had cast their votes for Jefferson and Burr, the certificate did not take the constitutionally mandated form of a "List of all the Persons voted for, and of the Number of Votes for each".[15] Vice President Jefferson, who was counting the votes in his role as President of the Senate, immediately counted the votes from Georgia as votes for Jefferson and Burr, and no objections were raised.

We're going to get inside the Capitol before this ends

Exhibit 506

January 6, 2021

Today the American People proved that we have the power.

We physically took control of the Capital building in a hand to hand hostile takeover.

We occupied the Capitol and shut down the Government - we shut down their stolen election shenanigans.

I was there and saw it all. My buddy Andy Nalley and I were in the first two hundred to rush up the steps and inside after the Vanguard had clashed hard with the police and had made them retreat.

The military isn't going to save the Democrat Communists. They are done.

Today we brought our Government to its knees with no weapons.

Now we're all going back armed for war and the Deep State is about to get run out of DC.

Exhibit 507

These were first 200 or so of us to actually get inside the Capitol. There was a group outside who made the initial breakthrough (not shown) and a few of them got hurt pretty good, but it didn't matter. Those of us coming up filled the ranks and we pushed on through and headed to the next barricade without stopping. That's what you're seeing here.

Exhibit 508

Patriots have taken the Capitol building. We overran multiple police barricades and swarmed the building. We busted through - thousands of us swarmed in.

There was a last police barricade inside, and we had packed in right up to them.

Somebody yelled "push through", so we did and the shock of our momentum brushed them aside - some people we're bleeding pretty badly by that point.

After we had overrun that last police barricade, the momentum caused a bad crush at one point, but carried the Vanguard through several smaller doors and down halls as we swarmed Congress yelling the names of various members.

Then we stormed upstairs through the rotunda admiring the amazing art work but at the same time looking for members of Congress, as by this time we physically owned the Capitol - all law enforcement had retreated to the perimeter and even more thousands were trying to push in!

And get this - the first of us who got upstairs kicked in Nancy Pelosi's office door and pushed down the hall towards her inner sanctum, the mob howling with rage - Crazy Nancy probably would have been torn into little pieces, but she was nowhere to be seen - then a swat team showed, and we retreated back to the rotunda and continued our hostile take over of the Capitol Building.

There was such a push of even more Patriots coming into the Capitol that we couldn't get out for about 20 minutes.

If this steal doesn't get fixed there's talk of Patriots coming back - this time fully armed for war.

We mean business. We proved today that we're in control and we outnumber the deep state 10,000 to 1 - they can't stop us.

I was there George. We too the Capitol in hostile hand to hand confrontation with the police. I was in the wave that broke through the cops and took it. There were thousands and thousands of us.
